Art Unit: 1793

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Basini et al (newly cited). Basini et al disclose a catalyst system in claim 26 which may include a combination of Pt and Cu on AlN. Accordingly claims 18-29 are anticipated by Basini et al, since one of ordinary skill in the art could at once envisage the catalyst recited in claims 18-20. In any event, it would be obvious to select AlN as the nitride and Pt-Cu as the combination of metals for the catalyst of Basini et al, since it would be within the skill of one of ordinary skill in the art to determine suitable combinations of nitrides and metals for the catalyst.

Claims 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Trubenbach et al '897 (newly cited).

Art Unit: 1793

Trubenbach et al '897 discloses a catalyst which may include aluminum nitride and platinum along with Cu, W, Ag and/or Au. (See col. 9, line 46 to col. 10, line 20.)

Accordingly claims 18-29 are anticipated by Trubenbach et al '897, since one of ordinary skill in the art could at once envisage the catalyst recited in claims 18-20. In any event, it would be obvious to select AlN as the nitride and Pt along with Cu, Ag, Au and/or W as the metallic powder for the catalyst of Basini et al, since it would be within the skill of one of ordinary skill in the art to determine suitable combinations of inorganic powders and metallic powders for the catalyst.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Benderly is not prior art for the instant claims, for the reasons presented by applicants in the response filed December 18, 2007. Accordingly any rejections based on Benderly are withdrawn. The other rejections are withdrawn for the reasons presented by applicants in the response filed December 18, 2007.

Trubenbach et al '898 is made of record for suggesting the catalyst recited in claims 18-20.

Hecht et al is made of record for disclosing the BMA process wherein the catalyst comprises platinum and aluminum nitride.

Freund et al is made of record for disclosing a platinum-aluminum alloy catalyst.

Claims 9-17 are allowed.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
